

Hopkinsville Bertuckian, PUBLISHED THURSDAY AND FRIDAY MORNINGS

THOMAS M. MEACHAM,

ADSCRIPTION AT A YEAR IN ADVANCE TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1893

"Old Hatch" has recovered his lost gun and is at it again in the Chicago Board of Trade.

Col. Jim R. Proctor, the new man has succeeded Lyman as Chairman of the Civil Service Commission.

The reported hanging of four negroes near Selma, Ala., Dec. 9, turned out to be a hoax. We therefore drop back four numbers and make the Negro lynching last Friday 10th.

After the loss of a month in which there were 1,162 ballots, F. G.
Granger was elected President of the Louisville Board of Aldermen. At various Hulwes changed his vote from Hulwes to Granger.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for January.

Frank Leslie, the popular monthly for January contains this obituary of Fairy of the Moon, a vivid and picturesque account of "Cinderella" on the stage at Alabam Mime Hawk, the favorite prima donna, who created this role of Carmen in Bizet's opera. Joaquin Miller, the famous "Poet of Sierra," contributed a splendidly imaginative poem, in his canon, entitled "Sappho and Alcestis." The author has written with the first work of his career.
Turning, by way of contrast, to the practical side of Frank Leslie's, we have "How I Became My Own Land Lord," by Robert Waters—an explanation of the principles and workings of oil wells, and "How to Make Money fast to prove a valuable lesson to wage earner. Other illustrated articles treat of "The Uniting of July," "Strange Peoples at the World's Fair," "Times," "The Library of New York," "Evolution of Business," "The Woman's Voice," and a number of short articles. There are several charming short sketches of adventure, including Archibald Forbes' thrilling narrative of "Riding the Blockade of Pavao."

LYNCHED AT NEBO;

A Negro Tied to a Tree and Riddled With Bullets.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 21, 1893.
By W. H. E. Atwood, Times-Sav. Sir.—In regard to the scampless and unscrupulous "D. B. W.
Lyons," who was shot and killed yesterday, and his body, especially about his abdomen, was terribly mangled.
The details of the affair, as related by the Madisonville Leader, are very meager.

Givens is said to have had a very bad reputation and the suspicion is that he was a member of the Ku Klux Kaps and the terrible response was shown by his brutal wounds upon him.
The body was found wounds out a short distance from his home, which was about two miles from Nebo. Givens was reported to have been a regular attendant on people in the neighborhood, both white and black. This is supposed to have been the direct cause of the lynching. The circuit went out from Madisonville to investigate the affair, but the result of his investigation has not been learned.

TRYED TO KILL HER.

Miss Bettie Garrett Easton and Chased in Her Bed.

Friday morning at 12 o'clock two young women visitors, the house of Miss Bettie Garrett, a young and infamous lady living alone in a lonely estate on South Main street, and made an assault with intent to kill. Miss Garrett heard them at her door and ran to the window and saw them and they then went to a rear window and broke in. She was dragged from her bed by the women, whose names are Bettie Irvin and Laura Taylor, who told her they had come to kill her.
She was clapped into bed and shaken and beaten and then was pulled from her bed and the woman finally left her. It is presumed, she was found the next morning by the neighbors, having been severely beaten and bruised and her mouth lacerated where the hands had pulled her to tear out her tongue.

The police were notified and the woman were promptly arrested and lodged in jail. They were held in custody until the time of trial in a few days ago, in the Circuit Court, at which time Miss Irvin, a poor seamstress and Mrs. Garrett, her landlady, had a good and cordial interview and the woman was released.

They are notorious ardent wanton girls who have given the police good deal of trouble heretofore.

Hood's SUPERIOR Cures

Mr. W. C. Allen

of Atlanta, Georgia, testifies that he was at first with W. C. Hood, the inventor of Hood's Cures, and that he has been a constant attendant on the inventor in his operations, giving him personal and practical power and possibility to cure when other practitioners fail.

Taka Vitalia Liver Pills.

Any Drunkard Can Be Cured.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., November 4, 1893.

THE NASHVILLE SANATORIUM: OCTOBER 21.—I took the train to Louisville for a vacation in the months of February and March, 1893, and, like others who have been at the Louisville Sanatorium, I was impressed with the value of the Sanatorium, can testify to its merits of the Tyrolean cure. I don't care how long I live, I will always be a drunkard, but now down he has been brought by the use of alcohol drugs, I can't help it, but I can cure myself and that will cure me here and that he will suffer no inconveniences or disabilities. He will commence the treatment of your medicines which is really miraculous. No one can believe in the Tyrolean cure, but I can.
I have never had that last desire for whisky since three days after I commenced the treatment of the Tyrolean cure.

Convictia Captured.

Tom and Joe Phelps, two escaped convicts from the Eddyville penitentiary, were captured near Princeton last week and taken back to the tumultuous life of the underworld.
They were tracked by bloodhounds by W. H. Hammond, a farmer, captured them.

Another Clarksville Failure.

Mr. J. S. Moore, a Clarksville merchant, has assigned, naming D. M.
Lyons as assignee. Mr. Moore's assignees are to be greatly in excess of his assets, and he has been unable to pay his debts.

Through the kindness of my friends, the Turner Bros., I was invited to the private room of the Dr. T. C. Tamm to speak with him. He is a man of great tact and a crowd of men have gathered around him and he has been a great success.
I have never had that last
desire for whisky since three
days after I commenced the treatment of the Tyrolean cure.

Destroyed by Fire.

The dwelling house and contents of Mr. Nicholas Crick, of Sturt's particular, were burned last Wednesday.

No one was at home when the house caught on fire, and when it was discovered it had made up a large amount of smoke.

Mr. Crick is a man of modest means, I say that any drunkard can be cured if his awful habit is not put in his way, but I can't help it, but I can cure myself and have an honest living since taking the Tyrolean cure.

Concurred in by Dr. C. C. Allen.

Supervisors Will Meet.

The Board of Supervisors, composed of Mr. W. Pritchett, J. E. Elton, Oss O. Conaway, Leslie Garrett, R. J. Carothers, A. C. Craft and Mr. J. M. P. Ford, will meet in the Assessors' office in this city on Monday evening at 8 o'clock to consider the various grievances which they have an opportunity to lay before the board for adjustment.

Heathrow Herdsmen.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 16, 1893.—After a brief respite we are to the front again, and the reason is the fact that new items of much interest are now just in.

Our merchants are anticipating a good Holiday trade.

The Herdsmen Tamson Co. are doing a good business in their hemp and tobacco thread and cotton goods.

Mr. H. C. Tamm's new store houses are nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy Jan. 1. It is also in dashed that two other stores will be opened in this place in a few weeks.

There is a rumor that Mr. Tamm will open a large store in the center of the city after the new year.
